BIOGRAPHY

Coached by Issam Jellali, Ons shares the life of her fitness trainer Karim Kammoun and has two brothers and one sister. She started playing tennis at the age of 3 when her mother, who loved playing tennis, took her to the tennis club. Her favorite shots are forehand and volleys - she also likes slice and drop shots. Ons was quickly spotted as one of the most talented players of her generation, as she won Roland Garros Juniors in 2011. Since she turned pro, Ons has become a true national hero, breaking numerous records and becoming the best Arabic player in the history of tennis.

She admired Andy Roddick as a player but also for his sense of humor. Ons is a great fan of football - her favorite clubs being Real Madrid and Juventus. She is extremely proud of her roots, and always makes sure to highlight Tunisia in her performances.

BIOGRAPHY

Anastasia is currently working with her brother Aleksandr Pavlyuchenkov. Part of a sportsmen family as her grandmother played basketball for the USSR and her grandfather was a high-level basketball referee - her mother Marina was a swimmer too. She got introduced to tennis by her family when she was 6. Anastasia was already a top player in her young age, as she won 3 singles and 4 doubles junior Grand Slam titles. On the WTA Tour, she is still considered as one of the most consistent players on the tour, ending each year between the 15th and the 30th between 2011 and 2019. She reached her first ever Grand Slam final at Roland Garros 2021 after 52 Major appearances but fell just short against Krejčíková.

She speaks Russian, English and French. Anastasia likes comedy movies - especially movies with Johnny Depp and Ben Stiller. Her favorite kind of music are R&B & hip-hop. She is known on the tour for her sparkly personality.
